How is Confidentiality Assured?

Ministry to Ministers has spoken with all counseling agencies on the back of this brochure explaining the need for confidentiality and requesting the Service Center receive invoices with only a client number and no names.

Why do people call Ministry to Ministers?

People call about such matters as: Marital or family conflict; Abuse: substance, alcohol, domestic, sexual, etc.; Depression, anxiety and other emotional concerns; Legal and financial difficulties; Work-related problems; Addictions: pornography, sexual, etc.

How do I contact Ministry to Ministers?

On the back of this brochure is a list of Christian Counseling Centers we approve. Make an appointment and show them your Church of God credentials card. They will invoice your insurance, have you pay the copay on the page opposite, and invoice us for the rest. They have been instructed to give us only a client number, protecting you with confidentiality.

If you choose a counselor who is not on our list have them call our office (800) 369-5890 and we will explain this program. Again, please ask them to not use your name so your counseling can remain confidential. It is critical you have your Church of God credentials card.

Spiritual Direction

We are all on a journey with Jesus, but it is not always easy to discern His presence and activity in our lives. Spiritual direction helps us to "open our eyes" (Luke 24:31) to see the One in our midst.

Hospitable, strictly confidential, and grounded in Biblical truth, spiritual direction is a ministry that helps believers draw closer to God through prayer and spiritual exercises, attend more fully to the presence of God in daily life, and live in one's calling as a follower of Christ.
